Disability Awareness and Team Building Program for Corporate Groups

Interactive, Fun, Educational and Inclusive

If you are looking for something challenging, fun and unique to engage your staff or team at their next social or development day, why not have a go at wheelchair basketball?

Wheelchair Sports WA (WSWA) offers businesses and corporate groups a fun and interactive disability awareness program called Wheel LIFE.

The program is designed to motivate and educate, whilst providing a practical understanding of what it is like to live with a physical disability.

Our Wheel LIFE program is very flexible and can be adapted to suit your requirements in terms of duration (1 hour through to full day), content (team building focus, disability awareness focus) and venue.

A standard session usually involves a presentation from an athlete and an interactive wheelchair basketball session:

- Brief overview from an athlete, basic skills coaching and game play under the supervision of an experienced wheelchair basketball player - $500* for 1 hour + $250* per additional hour

We also offer additional options for Corporates. You can choose any combination of the following to be included in your customised program:

- Keynote presentation by an athlete with a disability, followed by Q & A. This is usually an Australian representative or Paralympian - $500*
- Coordinated mini wheelchair basketball tournament for larger groups - $250*/hr
- Conference / Meeting Room - $50*/hr
- Catering (on request)

To receive a formal written quote, please provide:

- An indication of dates, venue, duration and expected number of participants
- Requirements for any additional options or anything else we may be able to provide

The Wheel LIFE program can be conducted at the home of WSWA; the Herb Graham Recreation Centre in Mirrabooka, where we have fantastic facilities or we can bring the program to you, provided you have a suitable playing surface.
